

Dear Sirs;I am under the impression that some changes are trying to be implemented in the sattelite radio services. I am an owner/operator leased to a large transportation firm. I have an XM radio in my truck and depend upon my radio for information, entertainment, traffic and weather reports. This service has made a large difference to me and I would hope that any changes deemed necessary by the FCC would not interfere with the curent level of service that I now recieve.